james hogg wrote some of his best stories in the shepherd s calendar in which he defines the content and the manners of the traditional storytelling of ettrick forest the mountainous region in scotland where he grew up they reveal hogg s experiences as a young shepherd as it draws a picture of the pleasures and the dangers of the lives in scottish highlands some of these stories deal with the supernatural and explore psychological depths with a noteworthy intensity and insight large parts of these tales are written in a scots dialect from the region of ettrick forest the shepherd s calendar rob dodd s mr adamson of laverhope the prodigal son the school of misfortune george dobson s expedition to hell the souters of selkirk the laird of cassway tibby hyslop s dream mary burnet the brownie of the black hags the laird of wineholm window wat s courtship a strange secret the marvellous doctor the witches of traquair sheep prayers odd characters nancy chisholm snow storms the shepherd s dog the expedition to hell the mysterious bride the wool gatherer the hunt of eildon james hogg 1770 1835 was a scottish poet novelist and essayist who wrote in both scots and english as a young man he worked as a shepherd and farmhand and was largely self educated through reading he was a friend of many of the great writers of his day including sir walter scott of whom he later wrote an unauthorized biography the marlin s fiery eye and other tales from the extraordinary world of marine fishes dives into the mystery and wonder of the daily lives of saltwater fishes joe e meisel introduces readers to the fascinating behaviors remarkable adaptations and complex life histories of the many species that call the oceans home from the shallows where penetrating sunlight encourages bright colors and extravagant patterns in fish to the abyssal depths where extreme conditions are countered in bizarre ways this book illuminates the staggering diversity of ocean life discussions of unique characteristics and lifestyles are accompanied by narratives from scientists and fish lovers with detailed illustrations throughout meisel also explores the challenges facing global fisheries today connecting the book s featured species with questions and opportunities surrounding food demand aquaculture and sustainability each fish has a story to tell in the marlin s fiery eye and other tales from the extraordinary world of marine fishes and through each story readers will discover an awe and a fascination for the oceanic inhabitants that we so rarely get to witness the man with the red tie is a book about politics but it s not a book about politicians it s about the people who get involved in politics because they believe they can make a difference even if they don t always succeed it s about the outsiders the idealists the dreamers who dare to challenge the status quo meet grant cogswell a poet punk rock fan and anarchist who ran for city council in seattle in 2001 grant was a long shot but he ran because he believed that the city was being run by a corrupt political machine that was more interested in lining its own pockets than in serving the people grant s campaign was a disaster he didn t have any money he didn t have any experience and he didn t have any support from the political establishment but he did have one thing passion grant believed in his cause and he wasn't afraid to fight for it grant's story is inspiring but it's also heartbreaking he lost his election and he never achieved his dream of making a difference in the world but his story is still worth telling because it's a reminder that even the smallest of us can make a difference the man with the red tie is a book about hope about perseverance and about the power of one person to make a difference it's a book that will inspire you to get involved in your community to stand up for what you believe in and to never give up on your dreams in these pages you'll meet a cast of characters who are as unforgettable as they are flawed there's phil campbell the burnt out reporter who becomes grant's campaign manager sarah jones the idealistic young woman who believes that she can change the world and a host of other characters who will make you laugh cry and think the man with the red tie is a book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it it's a book that will inspire you to be a better person to fight for what you believe in and to never give up on your dreams if you like this book write a review on google books
