ahmad suba i s autobiography is the story not only of an arab boy growing up in saudi arabia at the turn of the 20th century to become a noted writer educator and social critic but also of a place mecca and of the world of the traditional quranic school of the time in this book eminent islamic scholar martin lings discusses the significance of the pilgrimage to mecca in the light of the tradition of abraham drawing upon his own experience of performing the pilgrimage first in 1946 and then again in 1978 as well referring to the traditional sources he describes how the hajj proclaimed and established by abraham and ishmael about 4 000 years ago and renewed by the prophet muhammad some fourteen hundred years ago has continued to be performed without a break until the present day its spiritual meaning as profound and timeless as ever with this impassioned memoir an american convert to islam lifts the veil on this ancient and sacred duty of making a pilgrimage to mecca publishers weekly the hadj or sacred journey is the pilgrimage to mecca that all muslims are enjoined to make once in their lifetimes one of the world s oldest religious rites the hadj has continued without break for fourteen centuries it is like most things islamic shrouded in mystery for westerners here michael wolfe an american born writer and recent muslim convert recounts his experiences on this journey wolfe begins his narrative in marrakech morocco beginning with the month long fast of ramadan he immerses himself in the traditional muslim life of morocco then in tangier he visits mystics and the american author paul bowles from there he journeys to mecca the sacred desert city in saudi arabia closed to all but muslims though the buildup to the gulf war hovers in the background the age old rites of the hadj are what most preoccupy wolfe his experience profoundly strengthens his bond to the faith he has embraced as an outsider making it personal and alive at a time when the eyes of the world are on islam the hadj offers a much needed look at its human face mecca is the heart of islam it is the birthplace of muhammad the direction towards which muslims turn when they pray and the site of pilgrimage which annually draws some three million muslims from all corners of the world yet mecca s importance goes beyond religion what happens in mecca and how muslims think about the political and cultural history of mecca has had and continues to have a profound influence on world events to this day in this captivating book ziauddin sardar unravels the significance of mecca tracing its history from its origins as a barren valley in the desert to its evolution as a trading town and sudden emergence as the religious centre of a world empire sardar examines the religious struggles and rebellions in mecca that have powerfully shaped muslim culture interweaving stories of his own pilgrimages to mecca with those of others sardar offers a unique insight into not just the spiritual aspects of mecca the passion ecstasy and longing it evokes but also the conflict between heritage and modernity that has characterised its history he unpeels the physical social and cultural dimensions that have helped transform the city and also though accounts of such orientalist travellers as richard burton and charles doughty the strange fascination that mecca has long inspired in the western imagination and ultimately he explores what this tension could mean for mecca s future an illuminative lyrical and witty blend of history reportage and memoir this outstanding book reflects all that is profound enlightening and curious about one of the most important religious sites in the world writing this now on a borrowed laptop in my hotel room four minutes from the haram my eyes are filled with tears how have i been so fortunate as to come here what is it really like to go on hajj what is the truth about this high point in a muslim s religious experience in a far away middle eastern country at the holiest sites of the islamic religion and in the presence of nearly three million other pilgrims part diary part guidebook part spiritual memoir this absorbing book records rayda jacob s preparation and departure for hajj her stay in medina and journey to the city of mecca her experience of the five days of hajj and finally her return to south africa illustrated throughout with her own photographs jacob s candid diary lifts the veil from the life changing experience of hajj for muslims and non muslims alike readers of her confessions of a gambler and postcards from south africa will not be disappointed by jacobs s fascinating personal account of her 2004 5 pilgrimage in the siege of mecca acclaimed journalist yaroslav trofimov pulls back the curtain on a thrilling pivotal and overlooked episode of modern history examining its repercussions on the middle east and the world on november 20 1979 worldwide attention was focused on tehran where the iranian hostage crisis was entering its third week that same morning gunmen stunned the world by seizing the grand mosque in mecca creating a siege that trapped 100 000 people and lasted two weeks inflaming muslim rage against the united states and causing hundreds of deaths but in the days before cnn and al jazeera the press barely took notice trofimov interviews for the first time scores of direct participants in the siege and draws upon hundreds of newly declassified documents with the pacing detail and suspense of a real life thriller the siege of mecca reveals the long lasting aftereffects of the uprising and its influence on the world today the siege of mecca is an astonishing work of reportage a gripping account of one of the most dramatic events of the twentieth century and until now one of the most shrouded in secrecy on the morning of 20th november 1979 the first of a new muslim century with world attention focused on tehran as the hostage crisis entered a third week hundreds of gunmen from more than a dozen countries armed with rifles smuggled inside coffins stormed the grand mosque in mecca these men were defiling islam s holiest shrine believing the saudi royal family had become corrupt and sought a return to the glory of uncompromising islam with nearly 100 000 worshippers trapped inside the holy compound mecca s bloody siege lasted two weeks causing hundreds of deaths and inflaming muslim rage around the world this dramatic story was barely covered in the international media in pre cnn pre al jazeera days as saudi arabia imposed an information blackout and kept foreign correspondents away as the first british woman convert to islam on record as having made the pilgrimage to makkah and the visit to the prophet s tomb at madinah lady evelyn cobbold 1867 1963 cuts a unique figure in the annals of the muslim hajj lady evelyn was in her mid sixties when she decided to go on the hajj daughter of the distinguished scottish explorer lord dunmore granddaughter of the earl of leicester and great niece of the notorious romantic lady jane digby el mezrab the young evelyn murray had spent childhood winters in north africa there she had been imbued with the muslim way of life becoming as she puts it a little muslim at heart before and after the first world war she travelled widely in egypt syria and transjordan while strongly drawn to the arab world she maintained a conventional place in society at home marrying the wealthy john cobbold in 1891 and devoting herself to her suffolk house and scottish estate her gardens and especially deer stalking in the highlands of which she was a renowned exponent when her husband by then high sheriff of suffolk died in 1929 lady evelyn decided to perform the pilgrimage arriving at jiddah by steamer from sues in february 1933 she stayed with the philbys and entered into the life of jiddah s foreign community while waiting to obtain permission to perform the haj in doing so she had to overcome the considerable suspicion surrounding foreign converts who muslims felt made the pilgrimage and then wrote about it as a dangerous and sensational adventure while in jiddah she received visits from various officials of the royal court notably the king s son the amir faysal later king faysal pilgrimage to mecca is as much an account of an interior journey of faith as a conventional travelogue it takes the form of a day by day journal interspersed with digressions on the history and merits of islam while awaiting permission to go to makkah she was allowed to travel to madinah of which she gives an enchanting account she is the first english writer to give a first hand description of the life of the women s quarters of the households in which she stayed in madinah makkah and muna an account remarkable for its sympathy and vividness her book was published in 1934 to favourable reviews but has never until now been reprinted this new edition with a biographical introduction by william facey and lady evelyn s great great niece miranda taylor serves to rescue this unique and intriguing anglo muslim from the neglect that has since befallen her even among scholars specialising in women travellers
